

The best way to stop a coup is to avoid it with an indisputable landslide. In case that doesn't happen, we need to be on the ready. Indivisible has some resources below. You can sign up to get notified of protests if they are needed.

Trump refuses to say he'll surrender power when he loses. The Republicans are openly plotting to challenge the results of a legitimate election in the courts they've already packed. If the far right tries to steal this election, we need to be ready.

Across the country, people are preparing to stand up to a coup. And here in Charlottesville, Indivisible is ready to rally to make sure every vote is counted.

Click here to sign up to get alerts about any demonstrations in response to actions to disrupt or delegitimize the election.

And make sure you are ready: before the election, learn how to fight a coup by taking one of the nonviolent demonstration trainings offered by ChooseDemocracy.us or Never Again Action.

Have friends in another town? See the nationwide map of all demonstrations, go to protecttheresults.com.